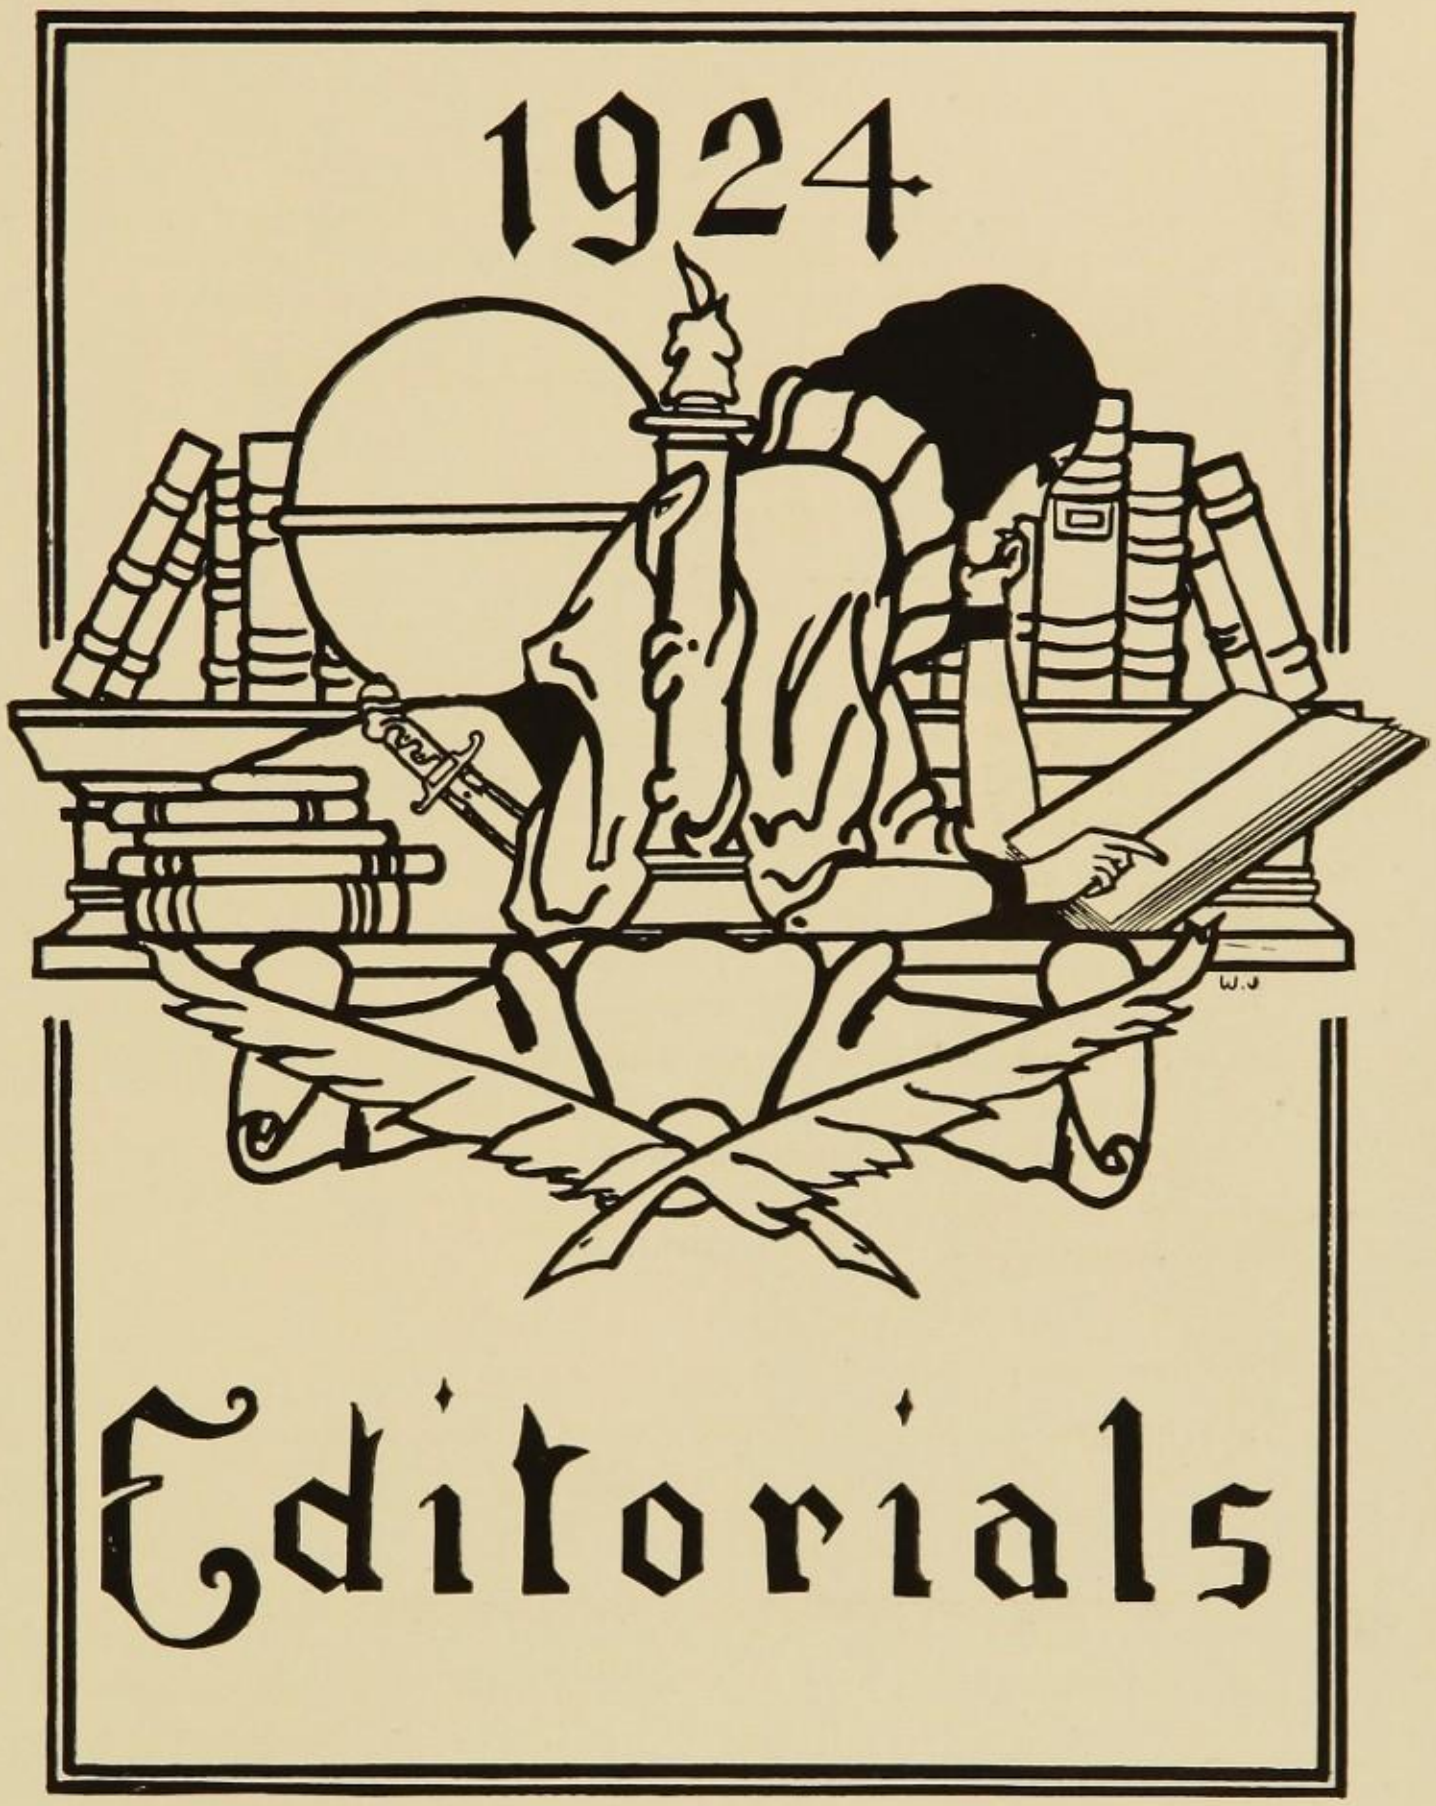
Foreword

THERE WILL COME A TIME IN THE LIFE OF EACH ONE OF YOU WHEN YOU WILL LOOK BACK UPON YOUR HIGH SCHOOL DAYS WITH REMEMBRANCE OF THE GOOD TIME SPENT WITHIN THE WALLS OF YOUR ALMA MATER. THEN IT WILL BE THAT YOU WILL PRIZE THIS, YOUR ORACLE, AS ONE OF YOUR MOST VALUABLE REMINDERS. LOOKING AT THE ALMOST FORGOTTEN FACES, THERE WILL BE RECALLED TO YOU THOSE HAPPY DAYS OF YOUTHFUL ACHIEVEMENTS AND SUCCESSES. IT IS FOR YOU, THE CLASS OF '24, THAT THIS ORACLE IS PRINTED SO THAT YOU MAY, IN FUTURE YEARS, HAVE A RECORD TO INSPIRE YOU AND RE-KINDLE THAT DETERMINATION TO DO YOUR BEST TO HELP NOT ONLY YOURSELF BUT THOSE ABOUT YOU.



Editorials

THE ORACLE Board of 1924 have done all in their power to make THE ORACLE a bigger and better annual. The Board has exercised all of its power in order to give you, the Class of '24, a permanent and noteworthy record of your high school activities. You will be the judges as to whether we have been successful in our efforts, and we sincerely hope that you will be pleased with the work we have done for you and White Plains High School.

THE GENERAL ORGANIZATION

THE General Organization, that factor of the School which binds us together as one, has lived creditably through its fifth year. It has undertaken no project that it has not successfully completed.

Among the many projects supported by the General Organization during the 1923-24 year have been The Bohemian Girl, The Dance of the Curriculum, The School Play, not to mention other activities which have been very successful. One of the most important matters of policy accomplished by the Organization this year was the establishment of the Blanket Ticket, a plan which was adopted after much deliberation.

The Service League, under the General Organization, has become a significant factor in our school; it has helped in bringing all our school activities to a successful accomplishment.

THE ORANGE AND BLACK TICKET

THE Blanket Ticket is without a doubt the greatest achievement of the General Organization this year. The plan was first proposed early in the fall of '23. Letters were sent to all parents asking their opinion of the plan. So many favorable answers were received that the plan was put into effect in the first part of December. The Orange and Black Ticket is simply a substitute for all our former single season tickets, subscriptions, and G. O. membership. The ticket is to be sold at the beginning of each year, and eliminates the many drives formerly needed for the sale of tickets, G. O. membership, and Orange subscriptions. We all appreciate what this plan means to the school and give our thanks to the General Organization for their splendid work.

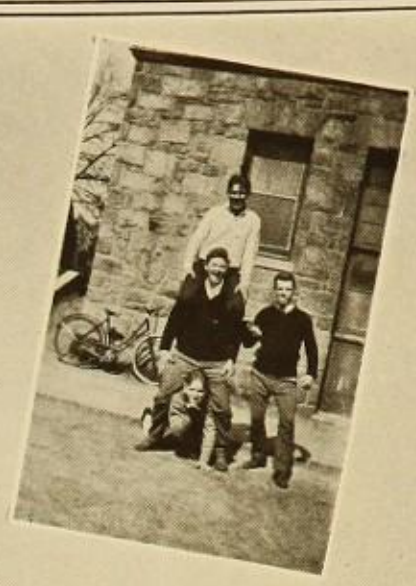
To the Class of Twenty-four

Through life, O Class of Twenty-four,
In all you try to do
May the future ever more and more
Be just but kind to you;
And Alma Mater, now so dear,
A pleasing memory through each year.

To friendships formed within these halls
May you fore'er be true;
And lessons learned within these walls
Be helpful boons to you.
May it be your will, to the final day,
To make a way, or find a way.

WILLIAM H. WELLS.



History of the Class of '24

As Freshmen

IN September, 1920, the White Plains High School opened its arms to receive one of the most illustrious classes that ever entered its portals. Unfortunately for us, however, the upper classmen were not of the same mind.

Our school won the County Football Championship this year. The Girls' Varsity also showed a splendid record. In inter-class basketball the juniors carried off the honors. We had one baseball man, Brush, to uphold the honor of the class.

June brought the long-dreaded Regents. Somewhat wilted, but not at all daunted, we began our vacation in which we were to recuperate and grow up into dignified sophomores.

As Sophomores

AS gallant, determined sophomores we came back in September, really quite adult and ready for work. We did better in athletics this year, for we supplied three men for varsity football, one for basketball, one for baseball, and one for track. When inter-class basketball came around, we demonstrated to the school some of the wonders of the class of '24 by carrying off the cup.

The fates decreed another championship for the school this year, but this time in debate. Both our teams won the Triangular Debate, and brought back the cup from Yonkers.

Our officers for the year were: Frank Corr, President; Royal Daggett, Vice-President; Robert Tyson, Secretary; Spencer Godfrey, Treasurer.

As Juniors

OUR junior year was a great success viewed scholastically, athletically, and socially. We possessed many Websters in this class; we furnished two debaters to the County Triangular Debate and almost all the contestants in the Extemporaneous Speaking Contest. Both of the first prizes in the extemporaneous contest were won by juniors. Six of the cast in "The Charm School" were also juniors, and we had three members on The Orange Board.

Six of our men played varsity football, two basketball, four baseball, and six track. The captains of football, boys' basketball, and baseball were juniors. One of our number made the Girls' Varsity. The managers of track, football, and girls' basketball were juniors, and our track team brought home a championship.

The Service League was instituted this year, and we, as juniors, did all in our power to make it successful.

The class officers were: Frank Corr, President; Spencer Godfrey, Vice-President; Howard De Nike, Secretary; Boyd Billingslea, Treasurer.

As Seniors

AS seniors we came back in September, 1923, "full of wise saws and modern instances". Our work in every school activity has been unsurpassed. Seniors are in the majority on every team, in the debate, and on The Orange Board. We won the boys' interclass basketball this year. Elated with this success, we challenged the faculty; but after the game we were advised to wait a few years longer in order to avoid another such catastrophe! Our baseball team has shown signs of having a successful season, and our track team hopes to repeat the success of last year.

The senior officers are: William Weed, President; Roger Donlon, Vice-President; Boyd Billingslea, Secretary; and Margaret Calhoun, Treasurer.

Now we are about to leave this school. Looking back over these pages, we realize how much the four years have meant to us. To the members of the faculty who have steered our ship safely through its four years' voyage, we wish to express gratitude. Now that geometry is only a memory, Vergil conquered, and Chaucer Americanized, we enter a new life with the realization that the time spent with our Alma Mater has been very much worth while.

The Juniors

President	Lester B. Knight, Jr.
Vice-President	Evelyn Michaelian
Secretary	John Schnepel
Treasurer	Mary Russell

HERE are the Juniors. Although not so successful in inter-class basketball, they are hard workers. We feel very confident of the budding senior class, who represent our hopes for the future of White Plains High School. May they accept the spade and use it to the best of their ability to uphold the traditions and the reputation of our dear Alma Mater. We warn them, however, that the path is not all roses, that they will meet members of the faculty who can see through all their old "alibis." We hope, however, that they will lead the school through a successful year and have the best of luck.

Sophomores

President	STEWART NORTH
Vice-President	ROGER QUICK
Secretary	FLORICE KING
Treasurer	GEORGE BOYLE

BEHOLD the sophisticated "sophs," freshmen of the past, juniors to be. No longer are they afraid to go home in the dark during the short winter days. Some day they will lead the school, but at present they are more concerned with the hard year ahead. They will have to keep themselves very meek when the juniors are about, although they can be real children when juniors are not by to restrain them. They will grow up some day, if they are given but half a chance. Seriously, they are a very promising class, and with their shoulders to the wheel they are likely to show us more than mere "promise." We hope that they will give an exhibition of fulfilment, and that the juniors will allow them to take a little part in the activities of the school.

Freshmen

president	jack sprague
vice-president	ross bremner
secretary	louis schipp
treasurer	john reed

LOOK at the crowd of children! They call themselves the freshmen. What is the school coming to when classes like this are admitted? Our hearts fail when we think of their becoming seniors. Is it possible that they can grow up in two years? It is strange, though, that they have so much school spirit. Who could expect these children to support, as they have done, the drives for the school play, the blanket ticket, and the like? If they always work as hard as this, their stature will not make much difference.

THE Executive Council has been very successful this year. Chief among its accomplishments was the introduction of the "Orange and Black" blanket ticket plan, which has successfully financed all school activities. A sinking fund of $1,000 has been provided by the Council and a plan has been established to furnish at least one assembly a month from the General Organization treasury. Three such assemblies have already been held.

As part of the regular business of the year the Automobile Club and the Commerce Club have been chartered.

Orange Board

THIS year, without doubt, has been the most successful year in the history of THE ORANGE. Many improvements have been made in our School organ. Owing to the hearty support which it has received and to the many news items that have poured in, THE ORANGE has been increased in size from eight to twelve pages. Among the new features the Open Forum is probably the most popular. During this year THE ORANGE has shown many cuts, a feature never attempted before. The editorial board has consisted of the Editor-in-Chief, the Assistant Editor, eleven associate editors, and a business staff of general managers, advertising and circulation managers. Credit must be given to Miss Robbins, who has done as much as any other one person to give it success.

This year a class in journalism, under the direction of Miss Robbins, has been established. Attendance twice a week has been compulsory for all members of the Orange Board. The reward consists in two school credits and invaluable experience.

The Triangular Debate Team

THE Thirteenth Annual Triangular Debate was held on March 28. The proposition was "Resolved: that the Soldiers' Bonus Bill now pending in Congress should be passed."

The negative, John Schnepel, William Weed, Richard Wechsler, and Anthony Paradise (alternate), worked hard to win at Yonkers, but the judges gave the decision to the Yonkers team.

The affirmative, Gertrude Smith, Lester Knight, Walter McKee, and Marjorie Harker (alternate), were more fortunate. New Rochelle came to White Plains with a good team, but met worthier opponents in our representatives. The debate was well attended and the audience enjoyed the keen rivalry exhibited by the teams.

Three of the debaters, John Schnepel, Lester Knight, and Anthony Paradise, will be here next year to uphold our School. Let us hope for a championship next year. Thanks are due to Mr. A. T. Jolley, our coach, and to Miss Overton, our librarian.

The Art Club

President . . . . . Richard W. Vogt

Vice-President . . . . . Winifred Jones

Secretary . . . . . William MacDonald

THE Art Club has now completed its second successful year, and is one of the most vital clubs of the School. Its object is to promote interest in art, not only among its members, but also throughout the School. During the past year the Club has visited Art Exhibitions and places of interest, besides doing library work on various arts. This year the work has been extended to include the designing of scenery for various High School performances, and the selling of candy at these entertainments. At first the Club decorated boxes for the sale of candy, but the business proved such a success that we were unable to keep up with the demand, and as a result only boxed candy is now being sold. The profits have increased each time, and the money derived from the sales has aided the Club much in furthering its purpose.

The Orchestra

President	Frank Corr
Secretary	Edwin Michaelian
Librarian	Thomas Skelly
Director	J. Dale Diehl
Concertmaster	Edwin Michaelian

THE orchestra this year has been one of the most progressive organizations in the school and the best orchestra we have ever had. Mr. Diehl deserves the greatest amount of credit for this accomplishment. Through his efforts this organization has come into such prominence that it is now regarded as one of the best of its kind in the county. The members of the orchestra also deserve praise for their hearty co-operation with Mr. Diehl.

The orchestra was the backbone of the "Opera" given this year; it furnished music at the alumni and annual school plays, and it has rendered many noted selections in assemblies for the benefit of the students. It has been a great credit to the school during the past year.

Extemporaneous Speaking Contest

THE contest was held this year during one of the regular assembly periods. This was contrary to custom, but it was very successful. It provided an audience for the speakers, and every student of the High School was given the opportunity to hear the Contest. Kathleen Barrell and Marjorie Harker won first and second prizes, respectively, for the girls; Richard Baum and Edwin Michaelian carried away the boys' honors.

AFTER several hard weeks of planning and preparation we who are automobile enthusiasts made possible last November the chartering of the Automobile Club. From the time of the first meeting membership has gradually increased from six to twenty-five. The Club has endeavored to help not only its members at each weekly meeting, but also the students as a whole. In early March the Club announced its intention to conduct a question column in The Orange to answer any problems concerning cars. A few weeks later this intention became a fact. Through the efforts of one of its members the Club secured a very interesting film, which was shown to the school in both assemblies on April 11.

THE Commerce Club is the newest organization of our High School. It came as an outgrowth of sentiment on the part of commercial students, teachers, and business men. The object of the club is to promote the interest of commercial students, and to bring about closer relationship between the business men of White Plains and the commercial students of the High School.

The club was officially chartered in March, 1924, with twenty-five charter members: Anna DePaul, Ruth Flagler, Stephen Fox, Mildred Frost, Grace Greenshields, Nettie Horak, Edna Hunter, Ethel Jenks, Dorothy Johnson, Matilda Keene, Regina LeSage, Clayton Lobdell, William MacDonald, Helen Macnab, Dorothy Marran, Elizabeth McMahon, Mary Miggins, Katherine Powers, Robert Roth, Rose Schettino, Ernest Schofield, Mary Sheehy, Kathleen Sutherland, Dorothy Ward, and Georgia Whelpley.

Regular business meetings of the club will be held on the second Friday of each month during the school year. In addition to the business side of the Commerce Club there is also a social side. Two banquets will be held each year, one in October and one in May.

The Opera

The Bohemian Girl

WE have taken another forward step this year. Instead of an operetta, we have given an opera, "The Bohemian Girl". Owing to the strenuous efforts of Mr. Diehl, Miss MacNeal, the soloists, and the chorus, it was a great success. The chorus consisted of a hundred and fifty voices from the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. Among the soloists was Mr. Stearns, a new addition to our English Department. The other soloists were Frances Elliott, Marjorie Whalen, Evelyn Bacile, Elvera Johnson, Jean Stuart, Warren Dennis, Wilfred Funston, Edwin Michaelian, Rudolph Merkle, Richard Vogt, and Gwynne Daggett. With the enthusiastic support of faculty and students we filled the house both nights. Many pronounced it the best amateur musical performance that they had ever heard.

Track

NINETEEN hundred and twenty-three will go down in our track and field athletic history as one of the best years that this branch of sport has furnished. The first meet of the season was held at Mount Vernon, and was won by Mount Vernon with a score of 42-38. In justice to the White Plains team it must be said that they were handicapped by the absence of two of our sure-point winners. The team defeated New Rochelle and Pawling School. It was the first time that a White Plains track team had ever gained a victory over the latter school. The team next engaged in the sectional meet at Scarsdale, in which fourteen schools were represented. It won this meet and walked off the field with two handsome trophies. A week later the team won the W. C. I. A. A. meet by a decisive victory over Yonkers, New Rochelle, and Mount Vernon. It closed the season by placing third in the State Meet at Schenectady.

During the season there were many noteworthy performances, such as Hoskins' 11 feet 3 inches in the pole vault; Donlon's completing the 880-yard race twice in the same day in the fast time of 2:04 2-5 and 2:04 3-5, respectively; McKee's breaking the 120-yard hurdle record; Shedden's putting the shot; Kristiansen's 5 feet 9 inches in the high jump; Billingslea's 10 feet 6 inches in the pole vault; and the early season running of Theall and Lent.

The team was coached by Mr. McGovern and Allan Mercer. Mr. McGovern deserves credit for the way in which he handled the field men and managed the sectional meet. Too much credit cannot be given to Allan Mercer, who gave up all his time to the formation of a wonderful team.

This year, with Captain Donlon at the helm and with such support as men like Billingslea, Daggett, Neale, Shedden, Lent, Theall, McKee, and Theobald, the prospects are good. We make no prophecies, however.

Football

THE 1923 season, although not very successful, has brought a great deal of credit to White Plains High School. Our men showed fine sportsmanship in every game; they fought hard, and in spite of numerous failures to win victory, they have gained the respect of everyone.

Our biggest game was with New Rochelle, the County Champions, whom we held to a 0-0 tie. This game, more than any other, showed the true spirit of our men.

A great deal of new material has been found this year, and it looks as if next year would be a fine one for White Plains. These new men, in co-operation with the veterans, made up a team whose machinery almost always worked smoothly; and if it had not been for numerous injuries and the strictness of the scholarship rules, we should undoubtedly have had a championship team. However, those men who fought for the Alma Mater have secured our highest respect and admiration.

JOKES AND ADVERTISEMENTS

Garage Man—"How much d'you want?"
Driver—"A gallon."
Garage Man—"Wot's the idea—weanin' it?"

A woman's secret society has been formed in America. (It sounds impossible.)

It is reliably reported that Mr. Denby has got the Navy blues.

If the modern girl must have a new form of adornment, why not hang a "Fresh Paint" sign on her?

Hamlet—"I wish Father's ghost would stop that undignified pacing of the ramparts. Uncle and Mother are just made for each other."

Mentally

Miss Johnson—"Does anyone know what's the matter with Dan?"
B. Billingslea—"He's absent."

"Pa, what is the maximum wage?"
"Unsatisfactory, my son."

"The Altons are going South for the winter."
"How silly, when there's so much more of it right here in New York."

The skyline of New York is reported to be moving. It is probably trying to get out of the way of the traffic.

Unseemly Mirth

American (in London)—"Say, waiter, doesn't anybody ever laugh in this hotel?"
Waiter—"Well, yes, sir; we have had complaints."

Class Stones

Freshman—Emerald.
Sophomore—Grindstone.
Junior—Blarney Stone.
Senior—Tomb Stone.—Exchange.

Mr. Potter—"William, why do we have day and night?"
Bright Boy—"Because the earth revolts."

Faculty

F avored in lunch-room,
A llowed all privileges,
C atch no diseases,
U nexcelled never,
L ive in luxury,
T ake life easy;
Y et rule persistently.

What the Teachers Think of Us

Freshmen—Almost human.
Sophomores—Fear neither God, man, nor anything else.
Juniors—Not worth killing.
Seniors—Here and there a few rays of light.

Seniors are positively so lazy that they even have to graduate by degrees.

To be a freshie is human—a senior, divine.

Mr. Potter—The scientists used to believe in the theory of phrenology; that is, that one could tell a man's character by his head; but they soon gave up because there was nothing in it.

F. Reed (being poetic):

Leaves may wither,
Flowers may die;
Friends may forget you—
Never shall I.

The Lioness and the Rabbit

IN THE FABLE: Said the rabbit with scorn to the lioness, "You have but one cub." "True," replied the lioness, "but it's a lion."

SAFETY — the watchword of the Investor.
SPECIALIZATION—the manner of its attainment.

Bob Tyson—"What's the matter, Bill? Those questions are easy."

Bill Wells—"Oh, it isn't the questions that are bothering me; it's the answers."

Prof.—"Your explanation is as clear as mud."

Student—"Well, that covers the ground, anyway."

B. Billingslea—"What do you think I am, a perfect monkey?"

"Bud" Mitchell—"Oh, no; none of us is perfect."

Paul Ryan—"Les, why do you wear such loud socks?"

Les Van Sant—"Economy, boy, economy. Nobody ever notices that I need a shine."

Father—"Son, I understand you are at the foot of your class in High School."

S. Godfrey—"Why, father, what do you mean? I'm in a class by myself. I scored a goal in every basketball game we played."

"Did you whisper in school today, Joe?" asked the teacher.

"Yes, twicet."

"Should Joe say 'twicet,' Mary?"

"No, he should have said three times."

A teacher one day received the following "excuse" from the mother of one of her charges:

"Deer teecher: You must excuse my Millie bein' late as both the hands is off the clock."

"Can't you go faster than this?" demanded a man on a street car, in a hurry to catch a train.

"Sure," replied the conductor, "but I have to stay on the car."

Mr. Clark—"Shedden, what is a polygon?"

"Fliv."—"Oh, a dead parrot of course."

SEEN IN WINDOW OF SHOE STORE

"Any respectable man, woman or child can have a fit in this store."

She—"I'm going to marry a doctor and then I'll be well for nothing."

He—"Why not marry a minister and be good for nothing."

Miss Porter—"The three people in the front row were the only ones who had their problems correct."

Voice from rear—"Good team work."

G. Smith — "That horrid girl just laughed at me."

E. Shumway—"Never mind, she often laughs at nothing."

B. Billingslea—"Nice dog. Have you taught him any new tricks since I was here last?"

E. Mitchell — "Oh, yes, if you just whistle he'll bring your hat."

Mabel Nathans — "Where have you been?"

N. Adams—"To the cemetery."

Mabel Nathans—"Any one dead?"

N. Adams (gloomily)—"All of them."

Georgia Whelpley — "How can Boyd jump so high?"

"Buddy"—"Easy, you see he trained on spring water all winter."

Mr. Potter — "What is the greatest physical effort you know of?"

"Les" Knight—"Wheeling, West Virginia."

Exams are like the poor—we have them with us always.

The absent-minded professor surveyed himself in the hair brush instead of the mirror. "Gracious, but I need a shave," he mused.

W. Wells — "Charnley fell down the front steps yesterday, but wasn't hurt."

W. McKee—"How was that?"

W. Wells—"He had on a spring suit."

Mr. Kelly—"Wells, what makes you so quiet this morning?"

"Bill" Wells—"Don't bother me; I've been out eight nights this week."

We congratulate the Editors & Business Managers on this year's Oracle

AS in 1923, we have again had the pleasure of printing "THE ORACLE." We sincerely hope that it will receive even more favorable commendation than the previous year's issue. Other schools have also found our "creative printing service" to be artistic, effective, prompt and moderately priced.

A Suggestion to Graduates

When you eventually go into business, insist upon having good printing. Cheap "price printing" gives the same impression to a prospective customer, as would a soiled calling card on Walworth Avenue.

With all good wishes to the Class of '24, in college or in the outside world.

Wing Fu found that his watch refused to go and took it into a local jewelry store to have it repaired. The clerk examined the watch carefully.

Clerk—"It'll cost you $6.50 to have it repaired."

Wing Fu—"Him cost all that?"

Clerk—"Yes, it needs a lot of fixing."

Wing Fu—"Mebbe you make him go a li'l foh two dollah fifty cents?"

Short-sighted Lady (in grocery)—"Is that the head cheese over there?"

Salesman—"No, ma'am; that's one of his assistants."

Creative English

Buddy (aged eight)—"We're goin' to have chicken for dinner."

His Younger Sister—"How do you know?"

Buddy—"I oversmelled it in the kitchen."

A Plea for Accuracy

There is nothing like exactness, even in romance-writing. It would seem, from such banal expressions as, "The man was half mad"—"A half-dead thing"—"With a smile, half-sad, half-joyous," that story writers have been so schooled in fractions that they only "know the half of it, dearie."

What a thrilling novelty if a novelist should spring these on us:

"The man rose from his seat, quarter-crazed."

"When they found the girl, she was three-eighths dead."

"Marcia smiled a smile four-elevenths of joy, seven elevenths of sadness."

"Peter was drunk, very drunk, one-and-five-eighths drunk."

Mr. Potter—"Haven't you any excuse this morning?"

Freshman—"Why, I think school started before I got here."

Should Have A Large Practice

"If you think there's something wrong with your heart, why don't you consult the specialist?"

"I'm afraid he would say it was something fatal."

"Oh, nonsense! He wouldn't; he's an awfully good sort."

Walter Camp has made the All-American football team more times than anybody else.

"Bud" Mitchell (in American History)—"McKinley was killed in July and died in September."

Drill Sergeant (to awkward squad)—"A rifle bullet will go through more than a foot of solid wood. Remember that, you block-heads!"

Senior—"You never lose anything by washing your hands."

Freshie—"Nothing but dirt."

Royal Daggett—"Gee, look at this compass. You can't even draw a straight line with it."

Mr. Stearns—"Are you sure this is an original composition?"

"Bill" Wells—"Y-yes, but you may find some of the words in the dictionary."

Mr. Stearns—"Boyd, how do you spell 'dear'?"

B. B. (absent-mindedly)—"E-s-t-h-e-r."

Miss Johnson—"Did you throw any of those paper wads sticking to the board?"

Dan Galgano—"No, ma'am, mine didn't stick."

Senior—"Do you know that guy over there?"

Soph.—"Yes, his name is Baldwin. He sleeps next to me in study hall."

"Bob" Tyson—"We had a history test to-day."

Dan Duryea—"I didn't have to take it."

"Bob" Tyson—"You didn't?"

Dan Duryea—"No, I'm not taking history."

Eleanor Towson—"May I get a drink?"

Mr. Stearns—"Yes, if you do it quietly."

S. North—"Say, did you ever take chloroform?"

J. Sprague—"Naw. What period does it come?"

Absence makes the marks grow rounder.

Mr. Kelly—"Miss Shumway, please continue your translation."

E. Shumway—"Is the next word 'sweetness'?"

Mr. Kelly—"Yes, 'sweetness,' go on."

His Discovery

"The waiters themselves are revolting against the tipping habit."

"I hadn't noticed it."

"But they are. I gave one a dime yesterday in a swell place and he handed it back to me and suggested that I buy a farm with it."

On To It

Waiter in Sportsmen's Lunch (serving soup)—"Looks like rain, sir."

Les Van Sant (with scorn)—"Yes, and tastes like dishwater."

Bright Senior—"You can usually tell what kind of wheels one has in his head by the spokes that come out of his mouth."

Mr. Craig—"Where do earthquakes occur?"

Pupil—"They are distributed over the entire earth."

Mr. Craig—"Yes, like gossip."

In English IV

Mr. Stearns—"Bacon's essays are of this type; they are boiled down to the very essence—just as a very, very small amount of beef extract furnishes soup for the whole lunchroom, so Bacon's essays have furnished thought for many centuries."

MacDonald (trying to save carfare)—"Fine morning, conductor, isn't it?"

Conductor—"Fare."

"What do you think of Papyrus's chances?"

The Fair Young Thing—"Oh, I don't think anyone can ever beat Dempsey."

Some reformers worry about the human race as though they belonged to it.

Horse Sense

Young Lordling (in Alberta): "My word! There goes the Prince off a horse again. And he was traveling incognito, too."

Puncher: "Yep! But you can't fool a horse."

Two high school girls were engaged in conversation on the street.

"Tom tried to kiss me last night and I wouldn't let him," said the first.

"Did it make him angry?" her companion asked.

"I should say. He said he wished he had called on you."

Promising Material

Lechler—"What qualifications have you for a quarterback? Can you dodge in an open field?"

H. Fiore—"I have been a pedestrian in North White Plains for sixteen years."

Cossack Dancing

Little Tommy, describing some Russian dancers he had seen, put it this way:

"They sat on nothing and danced."

Environment

"What makes him so narrow-minded?"

"He was raised in a New York apartment house."

Wife—"What's the matter, dear? You look worried."

Husband—"The books down at the office won't balance."

Wife — "Can't you buy some new books?"

Mutual Understanding

A jury at Howell failed to convict a boy on a charge of stealing a dog. A boy never steals a dog, of course. They just grin and go away together.

Mother—"Roger! Roger! What are you doing to Willie?"

Roger—"We're playing house-cleaning and Willie said he'd be the carpet if I'd do the work."

The ideal Mexican president will lead his own revolts.

Friendly Caller—"How old is your new baby sister?"

Little Girl—"I think they said she was two weeks and seven ounces."

Solving The Problem

Twelve-year-old Jimmy finally reached what threatened to be his limit of expansion when dessert was served. Jimmy stared but found the solution. He reached for his belt buckle and on the tide of a long-drawn sigh exclaimed: "Guess I'll have to move the decimal point two places."

Drudgery

Truth will out, even in advertisements, as another misprint shows:

"Wanted, a general servant to do the work of a small horse."

Will You Pass "Super-Regents" Examinations in Thrift?

WHETHER they go to college or step out into the business world, the members of the Class of '24 have another great lesson to learn—the habit of thrift—of saving something out of their incomes or allowances. The same is equally true of the members of the graduating classes to come.

Our Interest Department

pays 4% on all deposits of $5 up. The way to learn thrift is to open an account now and make regular deposits. When you have saved $50 or $100 you can then buy a guaranteed 5½% First Mortgage Certificate. This is a convenient, safe way to begin the founding of your fortune.

AN officer of THE COUNTY TRUST COMPANY recently addressed a gathering of young men. He told an incident that happened in Chicago some years ago. The President of a very large banking institution, in passing through the public lobby, noticed a small boy in great distress. He took him into his private office, where he learned that the teller had refused to accept the child's five cents for deposit, the first he had earned, and that the disappointment had caused tears.

The big-hearted President, seeing the thrifty nature of the boy, directed that a book be issued.

That thrifty young man is today the President of that Chicago institution
